26th February, 2024

Dear Parent/Carers,

Please see below some important dates for your diary for this half-term. Our newly formed school council are keen to develop awareness of different charities and causes in our local and wider community. They will be organising different theme days to achieve this – some with a fundraising purpose and some to simply raise awareness. Where times or more specific details are required, these will be notified nearer the time.
